  - The Otto fundraiser day for the Friends will be on May 12 all day.
  - Hilary will look into a possible fundraiser at the Regal Theatre in Newington.
  - The Community Oven fundraiser is still in process.
  - Jenny Medlock presented a suggestion from a friend that the Library have a "Parents' Eve" at the Library: parents would drop off their children and high school students would read to them. While it sounds like a good idea, it is not feasible: the Library's insurance does not cover unaccompanied children.
  - Hilary Ireland agreed to chair a subcommittee for fund raising. Ute and Andrea agreed to help.
5. Literary Fair, April 4-5: there will be a concert with Sharon Jones on the first night of the Fair. Susan will pursue the idea of a "Taste of Exeter" for the opening evening of the Lit Fest. She will reach out to restaurants to donate finger or other food for the event. In addition the group strongly endorsed a food drive to benefit area residents.
6. Crafts Fair: May 3. Friends will set up the raffle with craft items donated by the vendors. Andrea Perry agreed to take the lead on the Crafts Fair raffle in May, following the procedures documented by Sarah James.
